In the dark days after the Pentland rising in 1666, eight Covenanters from Ayr were sentenced to be hanged. They could not get a hangman to carry out the act. They offered one of the men freedom if he would take over the hangman role.....Come along and trace with us this part of Covenanting history.

Why not come, make new friends and renew old acquaintances as we remember our covenanting and reformation heritage and those who suffered for Christ's Crown and Covenant on this our 14th Anniversary trip.
